FISCAL COURT

Holds an Interesting Meeting in Squire
Fred W. Bauer's Office—New Bridge to Be Built Over
North Fork.

A meeting of the Mason County Fiscal Court was held Saturday afternoon in Squire Fred W. Bauer's office for the purpose of letting bids for the Lowell Bridge over the North Fork.

It is decided to have a state inspector to be present all of the time during the building of the bridge. This inspector will be paid three dollars per day by the county but he will have to be there each day work goes on.

The bids were then opened. The following were the bidders: Farrow & Co., A. E. Rankin, Augusta; E. K. Newell, Louie Bauer.

A committee was then appointed to figure out the bids and to determine the lowest bidder. The amount of each of the bids were as follows:

Farrow & Co., $3,124.75.
A. E. Rankin, Augusta, $3,000.25.
E. K. Newell, $2,389.70.
Louie Bauer, $3,341.35.

On motion Mr. E. K. Newell was awarded the contract and the County Attorney authorized to enter into an agreement with Mr. Newell.

The meeting adjourned.

Mrs. R. M. Wallingford of Carmel street is visiting relatives in Mayslick.

$25,000,000 LOSS

When a Large Shipment of Ammunition Consigned to the Allied Nations Exploded—At Least Two Persons Killed and a Score Injured.

New York, July 30.—Property loss estimated at $25,000,000 was caused early today by a series of terrific explosions of ammunition awaiting shipment to the Entente Allies and stored on Black Tom Island, a small strip of land jutting into New York Bay off Jersey City. The loss of life still was determined tonight. It will not be determined definitely until there has been opportunity to check up the workmen employed on the island and on boats moored nearby.

Two are known to be dead and at least two more are missing. Scores of persons were injured, some of them probably mortally.

The detonations, which were felt in five states, began with a continuous rapid fire of small shells, then the blowing up of great quantities of dynamite, and other high explosives, followed by the bursting of thousands of shrapnel shells which literally showered the surrounding country and waters for many miles around.

Fire that started soon after the first great crash, which spread death and desolation in its wake, destroyed thirteen of the huge warehouses of the National Storage Company on Black Tom Island in which were stored merchant dyes valued at between $12,000,000 and $15,000,000. The flames shooting into the clouds were reflected against New York's skyline of towering office buildings, which only a few minutes before were shaken to their foundations as if by an earthquake. Miles of streets in Manhattan alone were strewn with broken glass and shattered signs.

FALLS THIRTY FEET

Albert, the twelve year old son of Dr. J. A. Simpson of Forest avenue, suffered a severe accident yesterday morning when he fell from the L. & N. bridge between the depot and Forest avenue.

The boy was returning from Sunday School and was walking on the outer edge of the bridge. A cinder dropped from a train in his path and he attempted to kick it off the bridge. As he kicked his foot slipped and he fell off the bridge.

The bridge at the point where young Simpson fell off is about thirty feet from the ground and the fall must have been terrific. Some of his companions with him went for aid and he was taken to his home. Drs. Taylor and Quigley were summoned but investigation proved that he was not hurt seriously. At first it was thought he was injured internally but no evidence has been shown to prove this. No bones were broken but his lower limbs were badly bruised. Several minor cuts were sustained but bruises were the chief injuries. He is reported as somewhat improved this morning although still badly shaken by the fall.

MAN 60, TAKES BRIDE 16

Paris, Ky., July 30.—The Marriage of Preston S. See, 60 years old, and Miss Minnie Hines, 16 years old, was solemnized here yesterday. After the ceremony the couple left for Cincinnati for a bridal trip. The bridegroom is an employee of the L. & N. freight depot here. The bride is a daughter of John Hines on Stoner avenue.

See is known to quite a number of Maysville people, having been in the freight office at Paris for some time.

BRICK WILL ARRIVE THIS WEEK

The brick for the down town streets have been shipped by the Carlisle Brick Co. from their kiln in Portsmouth. The shipment will take seventy cars. They were expected to arrive last night but did not show up. It is thought that they were held up at Russell, Ky., on account of the congestion of traffic there. They will probably be in tomorrow.

AIR HOSE BREAKS

An air hose on one of the coaches of West bound fast train No. 3, which arrives here at 3:30 p. m., broke Saturday afternoon as the train was passing Limestone street. The train was stopped on the bridge between Market and Limestone for about ten minutes and many thought that an accident had occurred. It was fixed by the train crew.

NEGRO BOY INJURED

At an early hour this morning a small colored boy was run over by a truck near the C. & O. depot in the West end of town. As we did not hear of the accident until noon there is a possibility it will be along tomorrow.

IN FAR-OFF TURKEY

Man From Maysville Directing This Country's Affairs in the Land of the Crescent.

Just now it takes mail a long time to get through from one side of the earth to the other.

On March 29th, C. E. Allen, the American Consul General at Constantinople, Turkey, mailed a postal card to a friend in Maysville, and on July 29th it was delivered at his home here. Just four months to the day making the trip.

As Mr. Allen is a man from Maysville, holding the responsible government position he does, it makes a memento from him doubly interesting. He had been at Adrinople for six months prior to the sending of the card, and he had been having a regular Fourth of July time—fireworks in abundance and great balls of trouble to untangle.

Mr. Allen is a son of Mr. Bruce Allen, who for years was superintendent of pumps on the Cincinnati Division of the C. & O. and who resided on West Second street here. The young Consul General is a graduate of the Maysville High School and a bright and intelligent man who is holding down his position to the satisfaction of the officials at Washington; but, as he is a product of Maysville, what else could be expected of him? He is well and didn't say when he expected to return to the United States, as he must be constantly on the job.

PUTTING IN SWINGS

Superintendent Caplinger of the Schools together with the janitors of the Forest Avenue and First District Schools are erecting swings and trapezes for the children of those schools. At the Forest Avenue School there will be two swings, a climbing pole, a trapeze and a set of rings. The First District Building has only swings and a trapeze. The money used in paying for the apparatus is being taken from the proceeds of the various entertainments held in the High School last winter.

Charming Mid-Summer Dresses

A summer dress may be either positive or negative. There is no use spending money for a dress the style of which is more or less neutral—or negative. Why not have yours a positive affirmation of the present season's modes? I need not necessarily shout it down-to-the-minuteness—there is a quiet but none the less emphatic manner of expressing the style just as there is a blatant and ultra manner. The lingerie dresses we have reduced are of the very minute in style; beautiful workmanship; fine materials and are now

A "NON-PARTISAN" DEMOCRAT

A Chairman of the Democratic National Committee had a conference with President Wilson and came away with the announcement that he "found the President embarrassed by the thought that he ought not to turn to politics until the business of this session of Congress is over."

Strange, isn't it, how suddenly the President has come to the conclusion that he ought not engage in partisan discussion until the work of Congress has ended. A year ago last January he went out to Indianapolis and made an address in which he made the ridiculous charge that the Republicans have not had a new idea in thirty years. In New York, in North Carolina and other places he has made intensely partisan speeches while the work of Congress was in progress.

But, in addition to talking partisan politics, he has persistently practiced partisan politics. He has overthrown the merit system in the public service in order to fill the places with partisans. He has violated the spirit of laws for the creation of bi-partisan commissions and has given almost unanimous control of such commissions to the Democratic party. He has permitted members of his cabinet to go about making partisan speeches. He has permitted government employees to be used at public expense for the dissemination of partisan arguments. He has permitted revenue collected from all the people to be used for the general distribution of articles criticising part of the people.

Just now, when he sees an opportunity to get a few votes by posing as a non-partisan, he is embarrassed by the thought of talking politics, but it embarrasses him not one whit to do politics for more than three years. Therefore, his present pretensions fool nobody with ordinary discernment.

Democratic platform in favor of upholding the spirit of the Civil Service law never have meant much to the American people since the days of Grover Cleveland. What such a declaration means at the present time may best be judged from the fact that the Wilson administration has taken 33,000 places out of the competitive service in order to fill them with Democratic partisans. When Justice Hughes was Governor of New York, the Civil Service law was enforced to the letter and the merit system prevailed without regard to partisan claims.—Newark (N. J.) Union Gazette.

There is only one way in which all the people can be induced to practice a policy of buying goods "Made in America," and that is by imposing an import tax which will enable the American producer to meet the competition of the product of the cheap labor of Europe and Asia. The man who opposes such a tax cannot pretend to be a sincere believer in a "Made in America" policy.

We know now for certain that B. L. T.'s "Line o' Type or Two" in the Chicago Tribune is a humorous column. He says there will be four years of Woodrow.

DANISH WEST INDIES TO BE PROPERTY OF UN-ITED STATES.

The three islands of the Danish West Indies—St. Croix, St. Thomas and St. John, lie due east of Porto Rico and their value of the United States is strategic from military point of view. The harbors of St. Thomas and St. Croix are of the first importance to the American navy and St. Thomas itself lies in the lane of shipping from Europe to the Panama Canal. Important German and French and English mail companies have coaling stations there.

Early Treaty Failed

The acquisition of the islands by the United States has been the subject of diplomatic negotiation since the Civil War. Secretary Seward began negotiations for their acquisition in 1865, because the naval operations of the war had shown the necessity of a base in the West Indies. A treaty was made and ratified by Denmark, but the United States Senate failed to act on it in proper time and it lapsed. President Wilson, in his volume on Congressional Government, written about 1883, referred to the incident as the "treaty-marring overpower of the Senate."

Inefficient efforts were made to reopen the negotiations during President Grant's administration, and in 1902 soon after President Roosevelt came into office, Secretary Hay took up the subject and Denmark offered the islands for $5,000,000. The United States Senate this time ratified the treaty, but the Danish Senate defeated it. It was said at the time in diplomatic circles that German opposition in the Danish Parliament was responsible for the defeat of the plan. Later judgment, however, attributed the opposition to still said to exist, and it is said if the proposed treaty is ratified by both Governments the transfer will be submitted to the people of the islands. In the first negotiations in 1865 they approved a change.

The three islands of St. Croix, St. Thomas and St. John, in the order of their size and population, were discovered by Columbus in 1493. Spanish, British, French, Dutch and Danish flags have floated over one or all of the islands at various times. St. Croix lying sixty-five miles southeast of Porto Rico, has an area of eighty-four square miles and is the most prosperous of the group, with its two towns of Christiansted and Frederiksted. It was held at one time by the Knights of Malta, having been given to that famous order by Louis XIV. of France.

Near Porto Rico

St. Thomas, which lies only forty miles east of Porto Rico and is less than 1,200 miles from the entrance of the Panama Canal, was at one time the chief distributing center of West Indian trade, its importance being directly attributable to the fact that the mother country, Denmark, maintained its neutrality during the numerous European wars of the Eighteenth century.

The temporary occupation of the island by the British during several periods of the Napoleonic wars added further to the importance of the chief port, Charlotte Amalie, where merchant vessels rode at anchor in the magnificent land-locked harbor, while waiting for convoys to protect them on the voyage across the Atlantic. This town, with a population of less than 10,000 mainly negroes, is still an important coaling station for steamers to the West Indian trade.

With a depth of from twenty-seven to thirty-six feet of water, the roadstead can accommodate the largest merchantships which sail these seas. The export and import trade has become negligible since the rapid decline of the sugar industry, which the Danish Government has tried in vain to revive by granting annual subsidies.

St. John, least important of the islands, lying four miles to the east of St. Thomas, has an area of twenty-one square miles. It is scarcely more than a ten-mile mountain ridge with but one distinguishing feature, Coral Bay, the best harbor of refuge in the Antilles. Cruzbay, a village of 1,000 inhabitants on the northern shore, is the center of population.

Subject to Earthquakes

While Danish is the official language of the islands, English is quite generally spoken. Not infrequently there are earthquakes and hurricanes.

If Denmark decides to part with the islands there will remain to her only two colonial possessions—Greenland and Iceland, which have on aggregate area more than five times as large as the mother country, but with only one-twenty-seventh the population. The 138 square miles of Denmark's West Indian territory sustain nearly three times as many people as the 46,740 square miles of Greenland.

Naval officers regard the Danish West Indies as most valuable for any European Government wishing to quarrel with the United States and have urged it was essential to the highest degree to keep them from falling into unfriendly hands. They have pointed out that they are very near the naval station at Guantanamo, only 1,000 miles from Key West, and a menace to the free navigation of the Windward and Mona passages, the Caribbean Sea and the route to American Atlantic Coast cities.

Denmark's huge expenses since the beginning of the war are said to be responsible for her willingness to sell the islands.

SAFEGUARD OTHER PEOPLE'S CHILDREN

"When ever it is necessary, for the welfare of the children, to insist that one or more families be quarantined," says the July Woman's Home Companion, "it is astonishing how frequently this is taken as a personal insult by the parents. It seems to be considered as an infringement upon the family rights and not for one moment to be tolerated."

This editorial has to do with a widespread evil. It says further:

"A striking instance came to notice recently in a suburban town. For some weeks sporadic cases of diphtheria had been appearing. Every care was taken to find out the source of the trouble—but all to no avail. There were carriers at large, and no one knew who was responsible. So it was decided to make a systematic examination of the throats of the school children, and to send cultures of all suspicious-looking cases to the laboratory. It was found that twenty-five per cent of these cultures gave a positive reaction, so, of course, these children were promptly banished, and quarantine ordered by the board of health. The nature of the work and the necessity for these precautions were explained to the parents in every instance; nevertheless, some of these same parents were very angry, and tried various devices to break the quarantine. One of the mothers threatened a law suit unless her child was promptly taken back to school and the sign put on her house by order of the board of health immediately removed."

"Another mother entirely ignored the notice sent to her, and flatly refused to keep her child in the house, though she knew he was not well when she sent him to school. It was several hours after this child had been sent home before the mother could be brought to terms. Meanwhile, to spite the authorities who had perpetrated this outrage upon her family by bringing her boy out of school, she sent him over to one of her neighbors to play with the children. Two of these children promptly contracted diphtheria, and the younger one, scarcely more than a baby, developed a malignant type and died in two days. It would certainly be using a harsh expression to say that the child was murdered, and yet if he had been neatly shot he would have suffered far less."

Jackson, Breathitt County, Kentucky, July 15, 1910.

To the Voters of the Ninth Congressional District:

The Republicans of Breathitt County ask the nomination of E. C. Kash, of Jackson, for Congress in the Ninth Congressional District, for the following reasons:

BECAUSE he will add great strength to the Republican ticket in November both in the counties of Breathitt and Wolfe, and will greatly reduce the Democratic majority in the county of Morgan.

BECAUSE he is well qualified and fitted for the office, is a man of approved character and integrity and a man of ability, and is well and favorably known to the people of this section.

BECAUSE he is a fine campaigner, a man of good address, popular with associates and acquaintances, a good mixer and an energetic politician and organizer.

We ask the Republicans of the Ninth Congressional District to give this nomination to Mr. Kash, and if he is nominated the voters of Breathitt County will stand with him and give him a support that could not be procured for any other candidate.

The most wonderful whisky that ever drove the skeleton from a feast or painted landscapes in the brain of man. It is the mingled souls of wheat and corn. In it you will find the sunshine and the shadow that chased each other over the billowy fields; the breath of June; the carol of the lark; the dews of night; the wealth of summer; and Autumn's rich content—all golden with imprisoned light.

Drink it, and you will hear the voices of men and maidens singing the "Harvest Home" mingled with the laughter of children. Drink it, and you will feel within your blood the star-lit dawns, the dreamy, tawny dusks of many perfect days. Uncle Sam Agrees To Accept Plan Proposed By Mexican Leader For Early Solution of Border Difficulty—Carranza Is Expected To Give His Consent.

Washington, July 28—General Carranza was informed tonight in a note headed to his Ambassador here that the Washington Government is prepared to submit to a joint international commission the task of seeking a solution of border problems.

The proposal of the de facto Government for a commission is accepted with the suggestion, however, that the powers of the Commissioners be enlarged beyond the limits proposed in the Mexican note of July 12.

Agreement to this suggestion is expected, and it was stated officially tonight that the American members would be appointed and the commission be assembled at some point in the United States at an early date.

Full Text of Polk's Note

Following is the full text of Acting Secretary Polk's note as delivered to Eliseo Arrando, Mexican Ambassador designate, after it had been approved by President Wilson and his Cabinet:

"Sir: I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your communication of July 12 last, in which you transcribe a note addressed to me by the Secretary of Foreign Relations of your Government, and to request that you will be good enough to transmit to him the following reply:

"I have the honor to acknowledge receipt of Your Excellency's note transmitted under date of July 12 by Lie Eliseo Arrando, your Government's confidential agent in Washington, informing me that Your Excellency has received instructions from the First Chief of the Constitutionalist army, charged with the executive power of the union, to propose that each of our Governments name three Commissioners, who shall hold conferences at some place to be mutually agreed upon and decide forthwith the question of the American forces now in Mexico and to draw up and conclude a protocol, or agreement, regarding the reciprocal crossing of the frontier by the forces of both countries; also to determine the origin of the incursions to date, in order to fix the responsibility therefor and definitely to settle the difficulties now pending or those which may arise between the two countries on account of the same or a similar reason; all of which shall be subject to the approval of both Governments.

"Spirit of Frank Cordiality"

"In reply, I have the honor to state that I have laid Your Excellency's note before the President, and have received his instructions to inform Your Excellency that the Governing of the United States is disposed to accept the proposal of the Mexican Government in the same spirit of frank cordiality in which it is made. This Government believes and suggests, however, that the powers of the proposed commission should be enlarged, that if happily a solution satisfactory to both Governments of the question at forth in Your Excellency's communication may be reached, the commission also may consider such other matters the friendly arrangement of which would tend to improve the relations of the two countries; it being understood that such recommendations as the commission may make shall not be binding upon the respective Governments until formally accepted by them.

"Should this proposal be accepted by Your Excellency's Government, I have the honor to state that this Government will proceed immediately to appoint its commissioners, and fix, after consultation with Your Excellency's Government, the time and place and other details of the proposed conferences.

"Accept, Mr. Secretary, the assurances of my highest consideration.

"Frank L. Polk."

"Acting Secretary of State."

Will Await Carranza's Reply

Appointment of the American commissioners will await General Carranza's reply. If he approves the suggestion that the scope of the commission's deliberations be enlarged as desired by the United States it is expected his note will be accompanied by authorization to Mr. Arrando to confer with Mr. Polk as to the time and place of the meeting.

President Wilson is understood to have at least a score of men under consideration for appointment as commissioners. Among them are Chief Justice White, Major Goethals, former Governor of the canal zone; Frederick Lehman, former Solicitor-General, and Louis Brandeis, Associate Justice of the Supreme Court. It was stated authoritatively tonight that the President has not attempted as yet to make any selections.

City has been to the effect that Luis Cabrera, Mexican Minister of Finance, would head the Mexican membership of the commission. Neither the State Department nor Mr. Arrando, however, has official information on that point.

General Carranza's reply is not expected for several days and officials here do not believe the commission can begin sessions for two weeks at least. The State Department will insist that the meeting place be within the United States, as the question is not one of mediation, which would require a neutral setting.

Viewed as Vital Importance

The proposal to widen the scope of subjects to be discussed by the commission is viewed in Administration circles as an extremely important aspect of the situation. It is through an exchange of ideas on the whole Mexican problem that it is hoped a way may be found to furnish constructive aid to the de facto Government in the financial and economic problems with which it is surrounded. It has been suggested that American bankers might be urged to go to the aid of the Mexican Government under certain conditions. Neither American nor Mexican officials here have been willing to discuss the possibility, however, and it appears certain the Administration has no present plan of that nature.

Mr. Arrando issued today a summary of his advice from Mexico City saying that 10,000 Carranza troops were closing in upon Villa and his followers in Southern Chihuahua, and that destruction of the bandit command was certain. It is the first official Mexican admission that Villa still is alive. The State and War Departments have no positive information on this point and officials differ in their opinions.

"Determined on His Capture"

The following is Mr. Arrando's statement:

"The Mexican Embassy has been informed by cable from Mexico City that high military officials of the Government now assert that with a corps of 10,000 men closing around him and determined on his capture, Villa at last may truthfully be said to be in imminent danger of elimination from the general realm of Mexican politics.

"The same cable covers the information that the Department of Agriculture has taken in hand the development of the state of Guerrero as a cotton-producing area. In times gone by cotton has been planted on a small scale in Guerrero, and it is found that it grows well and the climate is completely suitable to it. With the view to making Guerrero a great cotton-producing district 15,000 acres of land have been prepared, and the Government has shipped in 50 tons of cotton seed.

"General Lopez de Lara, Governor of the Federal District, has ordered all superintendents of haciendas (plantations) in the territory under his command to distribute all lands of an agricultural character not at present under cultivation to the neighboring farmers in order to assure the immediate planting of all available areas. Orders of a similar character have been issued throughout the other states of the republic."

ORANGE A BOOZE CURE

(Kansas City Star)

"The war," says M. Capus, editor of the Paris Figaro, "is bringing out experiments and experience." Only a few days ago M. Painleve, Minister of the Interior, in an address to the Anti-Alcohol League at the Sorbonne, asserted that with the advent of the army three weeks ago of the first consignments of oranges the fever of alcoholism seems to have abated among the soldiers.

"Orange juice when administered to a soldier craving for liquor," M. Painleve says, "at once stops that eager appetite. It does more. Inevitable smokers have thrown aside their cigarettes and felt complete satisfaction after the administration of concentrated orange administration of concentrated orange juice.

As the oranges are distributed without stint, the Minister avers there have been committed to the hospital for treatment of alcoholism and overeating only 2 per cent of the number treated before the oranges arrived.

A DEFENSE OF MOTOR CARS

(Omaha Bee)

A professor over at Ames is chocked by the discovery that Iowa has more motor cars than bathtubs. He insists that properly the tub should come first, numerically, at least. This will be admitted, for reasons that need not be set down here, but consider, also, that the motor car is now listed among household necessities. Substitutes for the bathtub are many, and easily accessible. There's the creek, or the horse trough, or even the wash tub on the back porch. Between Shank's mare, Dobbin, and the motor car there's now no resting place, and the jump is a long one. Besides, the uses of the motor car are not restricted to Saturday night. Why can't the professor be reasonable and let the farmer buy his gas buggy, taking chances on his keeping clean, as his fathers did before him? It's an age of progress, and even notions as to bathing are subject to change, while the motor car is a distinct improvement over all other means of transportation.

2,007,000 PHONE BOOKS

(New York Herald.)

Distribution of 2,007,000 telephone directories to subscribers in the metropolitan district is under way, forming the greatest task that has yet confronted the company in that line. Of these directories 970,000 are of the telephone in New York City, 725,000 are the suburban list and the rest are local directories in the suburbs.

The New York City directory contains 387,000 names, 10,000 more than the directory published last March and by far the greatest volume of its kind in the world. The general suburban book, which is published annually, contains 197,500 names of telephone subscribers in New Jersey, Long Island, Westchester, Rockland and Putnam counties, New York, and Greenwich, Darien, New Canaan and Stamford Conn.

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years doctors pronounced it to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment.

Hill's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by P. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only Constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

NOTES FROM RUGGLES

J. H. R. Writes Interesting Letter of Happening at Picturesque and Famous Old Campgrounds.

Ruggles Campgrounds, July 28—second annual day began with the usual early morning prayer services led by Rev. Ora Sparks, one of our new preachers.

The R. C. M. Girls held their first meeting this morning. This new organization is one of the liveliest and most attractive of our campmeeting activities. They have had made since last year, a beautiful pennant with the name of their organization inscribed thereon, which they have hung across the front of the platform, making a very attractive appearance.

A new preacher gave us the morning sermon. Rev. John F. Ruggles of Germantown. It has been but two or three years since a boy from Lewis county he knocked for admission at the Kentucky Annual Conference to preach the Gospel. In the short time he has been preaching he has proven conclusively that he has good preacher material in him. His work on the Germantown circuit has been very successful. Knowing this we were quite anxious to hear him. He preached an excellent sermon from the text "Follow Me." His sermon made a splendid impression as was shown in the consecration service which followed.

Dr. Jolly gave us another delightfully interesting historical sermon at the young people's service. He took the story of Ruth the Moabitess and drew several very helpful and practical lessons therefrom. Dr. Jolly has the faculty of taking those beautiful old Bible stories, telling them in his own language and drawing the lessons that are most needed to the present generation.

Rev. W. H. Davenport was the man chosen to give the evangelistic sermon of the evening. The attendance is fine.

The children's service doubled in attendance today. Miss Hurd, the leader of these services is greatly encouraged. In spite of the heat the little ones flock to their meetings and are very attentive. Their singing is truly inspirational.

Mrs. Dale Bryant of Maysville and her daughters, Mrs. Harry Roberts, of Covington, and A. F. Rose of Toloboro arrived today to camp for the whole time.

Miss Rena Mae Coryell is one of today's additions to the campers.

Mrs. M. M. Walker, Mrs. Newell, Mr. Ed Thompson and Mrs. Hendrick Means moved into their cottages today.

Reva, Madison Combs of Coldspring, Isalah Cline of Augusta, and Luther C. Godbey of Toloboro came today to swell the force of preachers.

Miss Fannie Bierbower will return to her home in Maysville tomorrow, and Miss Grace Bierbower will come tomorrow to remain until the close of the meetings.

"Billie" Smith returned this evening from his usual scouting expedition. You should have seen the smile of anticipation that wreathed his handsome countenance as he proudly held up to the gaze of the campers, a live green frog as big as a young shark. There will be a feast at the Smith-Porter cottage tomorrow fit for the king.

Mr. Will Porter of Tulsa, Oklahoma, arrived this evening to visit his mother, Mrs. S. O. Porter, and sister. This is his first trip to Ruggles, and first trip to see home folks for several years.

The big Farrow auto truck bowled in late tonight with a load of campers. Mrs. Elizabeth Farrow and daughter, Miss Laura, of Maysville are at the head of the party.

Another preacher came in late this evening: Rev. Murphy Hill of Gallop, Ky. The preachers cottage is just about crowded to the limit, yet a dozen or more are expected Monday.

Ruggles Campgrounds, July 29—Everyone has been looking forward to the coming of President Franklin of Union College, the big preacher for tomorrow the first Sunday and for the evangelistic services next week. Dr. Franklin has been taking a summer course at Columbia University, New York. He arrived in Maysville today on C. and O. train No. 3 and came directly to the campgrounds, and was at once placed in full charge of the evangelistic services of the campmeeting. Dr. Franklin is a new man with us this being his first trip. On first appearance one would take him for a college boy home on his vacation. You would never connect him in appearance with the dignified position of president of a large college. But such he is, and has demonstrated his ability to handle the job in a very successful manner in the few months that he has had charge of Union College. And he is a preacher, too, of marked ability. The sermon he gave us tonight was one to thrill the hearts of all. He took the story of John, the Baptist, preaching in the wilderness of Judea and gave a stirring appeal to the people to bear the message to repent. If his sermon tonight is a fair sample of what is to come, we feel more than ever that this year's meetings will touch a high mark in spiritual things. The day has been full of good things. Beginning with the early prayer service led by Rev. Lital, which was the best yet; then the morning worship with a soul-stirring sermon by Rev. N. H. Young. Then at 3 p. m. Dr. Jolly gave the young people a highly interesting and convincing address on "Dancing." He took up the dance from a historical and Biblical point of view showing that the dance originated among the heathen and uncivilized peoples. In most every Bible instance where the Bible mentions dancing it is the cause of sorrow and trouble. Then taking up the modern dance he showed conclusively that it was not a diversion that any true Christian could engage in. Dr. Jolly is giving at these meetings some real facts and truths for the enlightenment and help of our young people.

Rev. J. D. Walsh of Chattanooga, arrived today. Dr. Walsh came especially to meet President Franklin and to hold a meeting of the School Committee of Union College here on next Tuesday. Several members of the Conference Board of Education are expected here for this meeting.

Rev. T. L. Stotler of Wallingford is the latest preacher to cast his lot with us, and to take up sleeping quarters at the preachers tent, the most crowded place on the grounds. John R. Brodt with his sore foot, arrived today to join his family and to remain during the meetings. We have several persons who are here recuperating their health, namely Mr. Brodt, Mr. A. F. Rose, Mr. Crate Willis, Mrs. G. N. Harding.

Mr. J. G. James of Carlisle came in this afternoon to stay over Sunday with his wife, one of the chaperones of the Camp Fire Girls.

Mr. Frank Nash of the Public Ledger force of Maysville came out this evening to spend the coming week. He is registered at the hotel Morris-Hinton.

Misses Violet, Ruth and May Mue came out this evening to camp for a few days.

Rev. E. H. Overly left this morning to fill a Sunday appointment at Walnut Grove Church near Newport. He will return Monday to remain until the close.

Mr. Williams and family were called to their home at Ewing today on account of the death of Mrs. Williams near relative, Mr. Herbert Swartz, who was drowned Friday afternoon in Stoner Creek near Lexington.

A large number of people came into the camp today and tonight to stay over Sunday. Everything bids fair for a big first Sunday. But of this we will write later. But for tonight we are all just having a glorious time. Weather a little cooler, the crowd in a happy mood, and all looking forward to each day being better.

NEGRO CAPTURED

The local police were advised to be on the lookout for a negro on West bound train No. 3 on the C. & O. Saturday afternoon. The negro got off at Market street when the train stopped on account of a broken air hose and then walked to the depot to catch the train again. It was reported that he had a large gun in his possession when he caught the train at South Portsmouth but a thorough search failed to reveal the same. He was lodged in jail and will be held until the railroad authorities call for him.
